

The eventual success of Broadband over Power Lines should not be at the expense of unacceptable interference to Licensed Users. I have read the Part 15 proposed rules and urge The Commission to strengthen the Rules and make sure that Licensed spectrum users can know who to contact to report interference and what to do if their interference report is ignored or the interference is not remedied. The contributions by Amateur Radio Operators to this country can be severely compromised.